

STATION 22 Gravel Pit

This excavation indicates a former source of sand and gravel. The excavated materials may have been used for construction of nearby farm paths, or maybe for construction of the nearby railroad in the 1860's. Excavation probably predated the use of power machinery.

